Former Pittsburgh Steeler Levon Kirkland – 2-3 pm

Sunday, March 24 – Former Notre Dame quarterback Tony Rice – 1-3 pm
Former Chicago Bears player Michael Stonebreaker – 1-3 pm
Former Chicago Bears player Chris Zorich – 1-3 pm

This is the fourth year The Big 33 Memorabilia and Autograph Show will be held at Harrisburg Mall. The Big 33 Scholarship Foundation, which awards academic scholarships to seniors in Pennsylvania, also includes The Buddy Program, which serves special needs children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Each year the Big 33 Foundation holds The Big 33 Football Classic. For the next five years the Pennsylvania All-Stars will play against an all-star team comprised of Maryland high school players, with this year's game being played on June 15 in Hershey. The Football Classic is in its 56th year.

Located on Paxton Street off Exit 43 of Interstate 83, Harrisburg Mall is a one million square foot regional retail project anchored by Macy's, Bass Pro Shops and Regal Great Escape Harrisburg Mall Stadium 14 theater.
