ANDREW M. ROUD PROMOTED TO VICE PRESIDENT, LAND USE FOR ST. JOHN PROPERTIES, INC.

BALTIMORE (May 28, 2013) – St. John Properties, Inc., a Baltimore-based real estate development and management company, has promoted Andrew M. Roud to Vice President, Land Use. Mr. Roud has worked for the company since 2009.

Mr. Roud will direct the company’s analysis and entitlement of Melford and future properties as St. John Properties becomes more involved in integrated mixed use development.

Mr. Roud earned his Bachelor of Arts in Urban Development/Geography from the University of Western Ontario in London, Canada, and is a graduate in the Class of 2012 from Leadership Maryland. He teaches a Graduate Level course at the University of Maryland-Colvin Institute of Real Estate Development. A resident of Silver Spring, Maryland, Mr. Roud is a member of NAIOP-Maryland and the Urban Land Institute.

“Andrew has spearheaded our efforts to integrate and elevate the product mix at several of St. John Properties’ mixed-use developments to achieve the best use of land and infrastructure resources,” explained Larry Maykrantz, President of St. John Properties. “This promotion recognizes his ability to increase the long-term value of these communities, while also successfully meeting the evolving needs of today’s businesses and residents.”

St. John Properties, Inc., founded in 1971, owns and has developed nearly 17 million square feet of R&D/flex, office, retail and warehouse space in Maryland, Colorado, Louisiana, Nevada, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Wisconsin.
