ST. JOHN PROPERTIES, INC. PROMOTES MICHAEL DICKSON TO DIRECTOR OF CONSTRUCTION

BALTIMORE (August 11, 2017) – St. John Properties, Inc., a Baltimore-based real estate development and management company, has promoted Michael Dickson to the position of Director of Construction. Formerly a Project Manager, Mr. Dickson has worked with the company since 2001.

In his new role, Mr. Dickson will assume expanded responsibilities in support of the company’s in-house Construction division including oversight of ground-up construction management activities for new flex/R&D, office, retail and warehouse buildings. This includes interacting with project managers, subcontractors and design vendors, as well as establishing and maintaining budgets for each construction project.

“This promotion reflects the extreme confidence we have in Michael to handle diversified construction management projects, as demonstrated by his strong track record of success with the company over an extended period of time,” stated Jeffrey Gish, Senior Vice President, Construction for St. John Properties. “His tremendous organizational and communication skills continue to pay dividends in his ability to multi-task and deliver construction projects that meet our development objectives.”

Mr. Dickson has more than twenty-one years of diversified construction management experience and has held construction management positions with Corte Construction and KDA Holdings. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Construction Management from Northern Michigan University. Mr. Dickson received his LEED, AP designation from the United States Green Building Council.

St. John Properties, Inc., founded in 1971, owns and has developed more than 18 million square feet of R&D/flex, office, retail and warehouse space in Maryland, Colorado, Louisiana, Nevada, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Utah and Wisconsin. For more information about the company, visit www.sjpi.com
