Pleasant Grove Opens Newly Remodeled Children’s Library

St. John Properties and Generous Partners Make the Magic Happen

PLEASANT GROVE, UTAH (April 25, 2018) — Pleasant Grove City invites children, parents, and patrons to its Library Grand Reopening Celebration April 28th from 10:00a.m.-4:00p.m. The facility houses a newly remodeled Children’s Library that is sure to fire the imagination of youth. Located at 30 E Center St, Pleasant Grove, UT, the remodel includes handicap access for patrons of all physical abilities. The cost of remodeling is made possible by a generous donation by St. John Properties and a team of local contractors.

“Education has the power to transform lives and strengthen communities. At the core of any community is a commitment to empower the next generation through knowledge,” states Daniel Thomas, regional partner for St. John Properties. “We are so pleased to be joined with other industry partners to make the library more accessible to the citizens of Pleasant Grove City.”

The celebration includes something for all ages:

- 10:00—Ribbon Cutting Ceremony with booths from community organizations
- 11:00—Art for Kids Hub - Be an artist!
- 12:00—Author’s Panel - Local authors speak and answer questions
- 1:00—Storytelling winners perform stories - Little Miss Pleasant Grove winners read essays
- 2:00—Monologues from our own PG Players
- 3:00—Pleasant Grove Royalty - Children’s story time
- 4:00—Candy Cannon and Rice Krispy Treats

“We are so pleased with the remodeling and opening wheelchair access,” states Sheri Britsch, Library and Arts Director for Pleasant Grove City. “We are certain the new look and library resources will serve our citizens well for decades. We thank St. John Properties and the generous corporate donors making this possible.”
